

Curb appeal

Get it ready: People who don't want to hassle with the details necessary to show their house can get help.

Kelly Watts, owner of Prix de soldes Home Staging, will do things like paint, clean, make minor repairs, take care of pet spots and even bring in plants to make your house look its best.

"We do a complete aesthetic uplift, everything from cleaning out closets to adding flowers," she said.

Fees are based on the size of the property and the work needed.
